

BIBLE READING PLANS

As Christians, the Bible is God's primary communication channel with us. Thus, spending time in His Word is foundational to our Christian experience, growth and maturity. Yet, for various reasons, many of us do not spend time with Him and His word as we intend. The following Bible Reading Plans are tools designed to assist you with overcoming some of the obstacles which hinder us from spending quality time with God in His Word. Choose one of the plans provided and follow it throughout the year.

Start at ANY time. Begin with today's date and go from there. In a year from today you would have completed the plan and read the Bible in its entirety! If you miss a day or 2 or 3, skip those days. Then later on in the week or on the weekend, if you have some free time, you can use that time to catch up. It takes effort on your part. So plan accordingly. Set a time that works realistically and stick to it.

BIBLE READING PLAN 1 - Chronological Bible Reading Plan.

This plan helps you to read through the books of the Bible in one year chronologically (based on when the events happened). For example, Job 1-42 comes before Exodus chronologically.
